This event is a part of WeBos (Women Entrepreneurs Boston) Week, October 15-19 which celebrates women entrepreneurs with events throughout Boston (<http://www.boston.gov/departments/economic-development>). WeBos provides a network of support, resources and opportunities to Boston's current and aspiring entrepreneurs.

Dudley Square Main Streets is a non-profit commercial revitalization organization and part of the Boston Main Streets network. Our staff provides technical assistance, storefront improvements, promotional events and skills workshops, along with neighborhood planning and zoning assistance in conjunction with public and private agencies.
